

Image credit: Robyn Backen, Connecting You, 2010 Photo by: Ian Hobbs

Experience the unique transformation of the iconic Incinerator through artist, Robyn Backen's sound and projection installation, If you do not speak, do I speak for you? Participate in the opening fire ritual and fill the Art Space with your whispers.

Drop into the Chatswood Streetfair and then take the shuttle bus between the Willoughby Museum and Incinerator Art Space from 2pm - 6.30pm. View placemaking, an exhibition by Rhonda Pryor interpreted from their lace collection at the Willoughby Museum, 58 Johnson Street, Chatswood, open until 5pm.

THE MAYOR, COUNCILLOR GAIL GILES-GIDNEY AND THE COUNCILLORS OF WILLOUGHBY CITY INVITE YOU TO:

The official opening of the
Willoughby Visual Arts Biennial 2015
IMAGINING PLACE
4.30pm - 6.30pm, Saturday 5 September

INCINERATOR ART SPACE
2 Small St, Willoughby

Guest speaker Peter Tonkin,
Director Tonkin Zulaikha Greer Architects

A vibrant arts festival of five simultaneous exhibitions and a stimulating public program. Discover fresh ideas through inspiring symposiums, insightful artist talks, comedy evenings, poetry slams, sound walks, workshops for all ages and many more engaging events.

BIENNIAL DATES: 5 - 26 September

For the full list of Biennial exhibitions and extensive public program, visit

www.willoughby.nsw.gov.au/biennial | #WVAB

RSVP: Kathie.najar@willoughby.nsw.gov.au

Proud to be a part of:

Principal Sponsor:

Sponsors:

